PRESS PRIVILEGES.

The Bulletin the other day had an article severely criticising the managers of public events for their want of consideration to the press. While the strictures were in the main just, exception should be made of several institutions and many public officials in Honolulu, which and who are always extremely obliging in furnishing facilities for reporting and in tendering legitimate information to the press. Conductors of newspapers and their staffs recognize the courtesy shown them in these particulars, and would acknowledge it more frequently but from a fear that the gentlemanly instincts producing such conduct would shrink from the publicity of printed mention. However, the influence of newspapers is always likely to be thrown, on opportunity, in favor of persons who have discovered to the press the qualities that make men favored of the public. Those who affect to treat the press as an institution beneath their lordly consideration are the ones who whine the most pitiously whenever anything they are connected with comes up for unfavorable review or is neglected in the public prints.

London Opinion on the New York Labor Vote.

The London Times, commenting on the election in New York, says: It shows the opponents of anarchy and spoliation have not awakened too soon to the perils of the situation. Both the Democratic and Republican parties suffered. The danger is that these losses will tempt the machine men to traffic with the promoters of George's candidature to advance and meet the demands of predatory socialism. Americans must look to it lest the appeals of demagogues to the half-instructed, restless artisans in the great cities should inflict damage upon the public credit and paralyze the productive resources of the country.

The St. James Gazette says of the vote for George: It is a significant and unpleasant fact that in the great American city of New York such a large proportion of workmen are prepared to vote for the gospel of confiscation. The election should cause all respectable Americans to forget the trumpery of party fights and political indifference and face the new danger that is threatening the commonwealth.

The Pall Mall Gazette, speaking of the Mayoralty contest in New York, says: The vote for Henry George is by far the most important political event of the day. It is a message of hope from the new world to the old, an unexpected light bursting forth in a dark place. Henry George is visionary, an idealist, and utterly impracticable, but were he as mad as a March hare, all the same the votes for him mean a protest against the rule of Mammon and will give an impetus to the discussion of the question of the condition of the people throughout the world.

Lord Airlie has disenthralled his family estates in Forfarshire and Perthshire, which extend to 70,000 acres, and he has decided to sell the deer forest of Caanlochan, and also the ancient castle and beautiful Loch of Clunie, with the property which appertains to them.

The Best Tonic.

Mr. Henry Billings, Washington, D. C., writes: "I have used your Dulley's Pure Mal' Whisky for medicinal purposes. As a tonic I consider it superior to the hundreds of concoctions which are now flooding the land as stimulant liquors."

SIDE LIGHTS.

Smoke the "Wedge," to be found at C. J. McCarthy's.

Mr. A. L. Smith's store on Fort street is a bazaar of delights for the young folks at this season. The stock is fresh, having come by the last steamer from the Coast. For a partial list of the articles see Mr. Smith's advertisement in the HERALD; but to make a selection go to his store and secure an early choice.

Mr. Levey in another column gives a programme of his evening sales for the Christmas holidays. Mark well the dates and let no other engagement interfere with the opportunity of securing splendid bargains, such as were to be had at Mr. Levey's holiday sales last year.

A Church Burnt.

St. Peter's Church, Pittsburg, Penn., was burned on the night of November 12th. It was one of the finest in America. The edifice is of stone and cost, when ready for its interior furnishing, $125,000. The cost of finishing and furnishing added to the cost of the building almost $50,000. The frescoing was of the finest, as, indeed, was every particle of furniture. On the walls were fourteen oil paintings descriptive of the life of the Savior, which were imported for church. The organ, which was one of the best in the two cities, cost $3,500, and the altar, with its furnishings, about $5,000. The stained glass windows were all memorials. In the altar was a number of valuable relics from Rome and also the archives of the church, which were saved. When the fire burned itself out, only the walls were standing and over $130,000 had gone up in smoke.

FUN AND FANCY.

There is only one thing that is more treacherous at times than a woman, and that is a sprinkling cart going over a crossing.

Mrs. Parsons says that all the condemned anarchists of Chicago want justice. It is hoped they will get it without further delay.

"Papa," said a little five-year-old, pointing to a turkey gobbler, strutting around in a neighbor's yard, "ain't that red-nosed chicken got an awful big bustle?"

Brown—"Hello, Smith! I thought you were at Mrs. Johnson's literary party." Smith—"I was; but that fool Jones began to read Hamlet's soliloquy and he read me out of the party."

In a recipe for "Dressed Potatoes" we learn that their "jackets" must be taken off. If it is necessary to undress potatoes in order to "dress" them, they should be called "full-dressed" potatoes.

A Washington lawyer who went over into Virginia the other day to try a case was hit a terrible blow on the cheek by one of the opposing counsel. The assailant sustained severe injuries to his hand.

A Pittsburg doctor says that the reason why no one ever sees a professional tramp with a hard cold is because they never wash their feet. We don't wonder that they are avoided by all respectable diseases.

Awful possibility. Baby—"A-bwa, a-bwa, a-bwa." Mother—"Boire, boire, what can Charles Augustus mean?" Father—"He's going to be a toper, Angeline. Boire is French for drink." Mother (anxiously)—"Oh, wouldn't it be dreadful if Charles should turn out to be a French baby and we couldn't understand a word he said."
